

PNSY PAINT, BLAST, AND RUBBER FACILITY - KITTERY, ME

PROJECT INFO:

OWNER:

Portsmouth Naval Shipyard

ENGINEER:

Tighe & Bond

PROJECT VALUE:

Confidential

TECHNOLOGIES/MATERIALS:

Hydraulic Rubber Presses, Water Jet Machine, CNC Machine, Paint and Blast Booths, Dust Collectors, Glove Blasters, Curing Ovens and various other pieces of manufacturing equipment.

PROJECT HIGHLIGHTS:

The new Paint, Blast, and Rubber facility consists of high and low bay industrial shop spaces, offices, break rooms, locker rooms, and support spaces.

ADDITIONAL DETAILS

Methuen Construction is constructing the new Paint, Blast, and Rubber facility at the Portsmouth Naval Shipyard in Kittery, ME, containing contractor furnished and contractor installed major equipment including, but not limited to, blast booths, paint booths, rubber molding equipment, rubber processing equipment and various other equipment to support the production activities. The project requires site modifications including, but not limited to, removal and relocation of major electrical, communication, steam, condensate, compressed air, and water infrastructure in support of the construction of the new building.